

Departure service

When the time has come to move back home, or move to a new location, we are here to assist in finishing the practical details. This service includes termination of the lease agreement and utilities, de-registration with authorities, coordination of services such as packing/moving of household goods, final cleaning of the house or apartment and arranging return of deposit. Our responsibility is to ensure that once the transferee has left, there should be no outstanding issues.